Special Feature

Consider re-looking at this historic book with fresh eyes !

Clothbound feature edition $48

Christ and Christmas
Mary Baker Eddy & James Gilman, artists

This large, clothbound gift edition showcases the artwork of Mary Baker Eddy's illustrated poem in vivid detail. Thanks to advances in photography and printing, the nuances of light and shadow, as well as the lines and shadings of the original artwork, are faithfully represented. Both elegant and functional, this book beautifully captures the loveliness, precision, and meaning of this illustrated poem.

“Finally, you can really see the artwork! I love the large size, it's so easy to read and appreciate both poem and artwork. A gorgeous book.”

Poems, by Mary Baker Eddy

Contains 48 of her original poems written from childhood through early adult life.

Of Interest: Mary Baker Eddy, in her later years, requested her poems be collected into this little edition to give as gifts to her friends. 100 copies were made for this purpose. However, others at the time saw the value of this compilation and requested copies, so the printing continues to this day! It was the last book she edited.

$22.50

A World More Bright

Isabel Ferguson and Heather Vogel Frederick

This compelling biography, while written for young adults, will appeal to any reader seeking an accessible introduction to Mary Baker Eddy and her remarkable life.
